

MASTER SCUBA DIVER TRAINER LEARNING TO TEACH PADI SPECIALTY COURSES

If you want to train your dive students to the highest purely recreational dive level in the PADI System of diver education, you'll want to be a PADI Master Scuba Diver Trainer. By attaining this level, your dive students will know where to come when they want to learn from an expert. This rating is a must for the career minded instructor who wants to be on the top of his field as a dive professional. Ocean Enterprises offers Catalina island, and San Diego MSDT experiences that allow you to achieve the best results. The course takes four to five days, and can be conducted over weekends.

What can PADI Master Scuba Diver Trainers do?

- Teach PADI Master Scuba Divers

What qualifications do I need to start?

- Hold five PADI Specialty Instructor certifications
- Have at least 25 certifications

How do I become a PADI Master Scuba Diver Trainer?

- Apply directly to PADI

The course is conducted over four to five days, and can be conducted on weekends.

Private group of three or more may set up their own dates.

For More Information:

Contact the Instructional Department at Ocean Enterprises
7710 Balboa Ave 101# San Diego Ca. 92111
(858) 565-6054, or courses@oceanenterprises.com

Notes: _____

_____

_____